

Wisconsin's "No Call List Law" is a very good law as it is written. I am opposed to any changes weakening that law. I believe that my telephone belongs to me and not to any marketing company that wants to invade my privacy.